

Board-Staff Communications - BG

The Board desires to maintain open channels of communication between itself and the staff. In the interests of efficiency and good administration, however, the basic line of communication between the Board and its employees, including Principals, teachers, and support staff, will be through the Superintendent.

(Adoption date 11/19/80)